ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO. 25-03

Order Appointing Attorneys to Receive Criminal Appointments

And

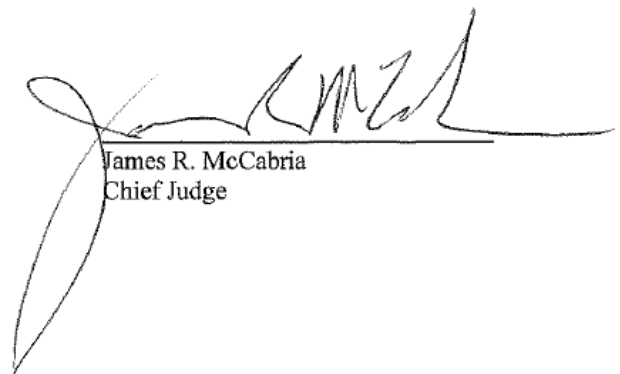

Care and Treatment Cases

The attorneys identified in Appendix 1 (Felony Panel) and Appendix 2 (Misdemeanor Panel) are the attorneys who are currently qualified and approved to receive judicial appointments in this District to represent indigent criminal defendants for the period January 1, 2025 to January 1, 2026. This order supersedes any prior order on this same topic. This order does not affect the order of appointment in any given case. Attorneys hired by the local BIDS office are approved to receive appointments.

The attorneys identified in Appendix 3 (Care and Treatment Panel) are attorneys who are qualified and approved to receive judicial appointments in this District to represent persons who are the subject of a care and treatment petition pursuant to K.S.A. Chapter 59. Compensation in these cases is the same as set forth in Administrative Order 22-02.

The Chief Judge has authority to monitor the attorneys on these lists and make additions or deletions as deemed necessary.

This order is made and is effective on this 2nd day of January 2025.

James R. McCabria
Chief Judge
