Employment: The County does not discriminate on the basis of disability in its hiring or employment practices and complies with all regulations promulgated by the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission under title I of the Americans with Disabilities Act .

Effective Communication: The County will generally, upon request, provide appropriate aids and services leading to effective communication for qualified persons with disabilities so they can participate equally in the County's programs, services, and activities, including qualified sign language interpreters, documents in Braille, and other ways of making information and communications accessible to people who have speech, hearing, or vision impairments.

Modifications to Policies and Procedures: The County will make all reasonable modifications to policies and programs to ensure that people with disabilities have an equal opportunity to enjoy all County programs, services, and activities. For example, individuals with service animals are welcomed in County offices, even where pets are generally prohibited.

Anyone who has a question or concern about services, programs, or activities is encouraged to contact staff most familiar with the program area – see list below for your convenience. Program staff should be able to provide assistance with auxiliary aid or service for effective communication, or a modification of policies or procedures to participate in a County program, service, or activity. The County requests notice as soon as possible, but not later than 48 hours before a scheduled event.

As a resource for accommodations or other questions, the County of Douglas County's ADA Coordinator is Michelle Spreer, Human Resources Manager, (785) 832-5149 or mspreer@dgcoks.gov.

The ADA does not require the County to take any action that would fundamentally alter the nature of its programs or services, or impose an undue financial or administrative burden.

Complaints that a County program, service, or activity is not accessible to persons with disabilities should be directed to Michelle Spreer, Human Resources Manager/ADA Coordinator, (785) 832-5149.

The County will not place a surcharge on a particular individual with a disability or any group of individuals with disabilities to cover the cost of providing auxiliary aids/services or reasonable modifications of policy, such as retrieving items from locations that are open to the public but are not accessible to persons who use wheelchairs.
