LAW CHANGES TO EXEMPT CERTAIN PERSONAL PROPERTY FROM TAXATION

In 2025, Kansas lawmakers made significant changes in what personal property can and cannot be taxed in 2026 and going forward:

Personal Property Tax Exempt in 2026	Personal Property Still Being Taxed in 2026

In other words, if you own personal property that is indicated above as Personal Property Tax Exempt in 2026 then no action is needed on your behalf. This property will still be taxed for time it was owned prior to January 1, 2026.

If you own any personal property that is indicated above as Personal Property Still Being Taxed in 2026, then you will receive a value notice in May 2026 and will receive a tax bill in November 2026. For these items you are still required to notify our office of any changes to your personal property. Examples of changes that should be reported include: the purchase of new personal property, the sale of personal property, changes in the use, and/or changes in where the property is stored.
