

LIVING WITH FIRE

Prescribed Burning, Wildfire Safety, & Land Stewardship

Fire has shaped our landscapes for centuries—with both beneficial and destructive outcomes. This program explores fire as a management tool, covering prescribed burning, wildfire risk reduction, and practical steps homeowners can take to live more safely with fire. Participants will gain a better understanding of when fire helps, when it threatens, and how thoughtful planning can protect people, property, and ecosystems.

With presentations by
Andrew Rutter - Director,
Baker University Wetlands
Shawn Hartman - Fire
Protection Specialist,
KS Forest Service
Jessica Layton - President,
Kaw Valley Prescribed
Burn Association

Flory Building

Douglas County Fairgrounds

March 14, 2026

9:00 am - 12:00 pm

FREE
Register Now!

KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY

Extension
Douglas County

Kansas State University is an equal-opportunity provider and employer.