

Groundbreaking celebration

Wednesday, October 30 | Noon

Join us for the groundbreaking ceremony of the Treatment and Recovery Campus of Douglas County
1000 W. Second Street
(north of the Community Health Facility)

And the following campus projects:

- Transitions — Transitional housing will serve up to 12 clients through Bert Nash Community Mental Health Center. These clients will attend programs designed to enhance their recovery and transition back into the community.
- The Cottages - Supportive housing apartments owned and operated by the Lawrence-Douglas County Housing Authority for up to 10 clients. Residents will be individuals who need wrap-around support services to stay stably housed and will be referred by the Behavioral Health continuum partners.
