

Crossroads of Parenting and Divorce

Five Steps to Prevent Divorce Abuse

The goal of this seminar is to provide children with the opportunity to grow in a home environment free of the hostility that often occurs when parents separate.

TOPICS

Keep Your Child Out of the Middle

Allow Your Child to Love Both Parents

Work on Your Own Recovery

Develop New Communication Skills

Create a New Relationship As Co-Parents

Understand Your Child's Development

SEMINAR BENEFITS

In the Crossroads of Parenting and Divorce seminar parents learn to accept responsibility for their actions, including those that contribute to the emotional abuse of their children. This seminar benefits children by:

- Reducing symptoms of stress as parental conflict decreases
- Diminishing their sense of being caught in the loyalty bind
- Creating a more relaxed home environment
- Increasing likelihood of keeping two active parents in their lives
- Enhancing confidence and self-esteem by fostering an optimal environment for growth

The seminar benefits parents by:

- Helping them recognize the importance of their own recovery
- Educating them about negative impact of parental conflict on their children
- Introducing them to communication techniques, conflict resolution skills and children's issues in divorce

For information on course dates and registration contact:

Diane Oakes doakes120@ yahoo.com 785.221.6672

Or

Adina Morse morseadi@gmail.com 785.766.6525