DCCF Population in 2020

Functional Capacity

- Max, Special Management and Medium Pods are all full
- Women's Pod (now pre-class or male observation) was full on Monday 7/27, Tuesday 7/28 there are 3 persons (holds 14)
- Minimum Pod (now Womens) is using only 10 of 28 beds
- Work Release Pod (now Min men) is using 29 of 46 beds
- Housed out of County – 15 medium custody men, 4 are Reentry clients (Jackson, Anderson, Jefferson, and Pottawatomie)

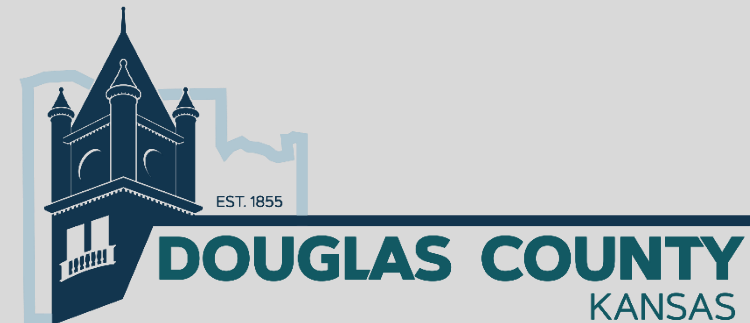

Functional Capacity

- “We are functionally full on this date at 126 due to limitations of how housing is designed”- not designed for a pandemic.
- 74 of 186 beds do not have locking doors (40%). Those 74 beds can only house minimum custody inmates. It is not possible to convert those with cells (28 of 74) to locked doors because a bathroom is shared by 14 cells.

These pods (2) cannot be used for COVID observation periods, because they do not lock or have their own bathrooms. COVID has limited the functional use of these 74 beds.

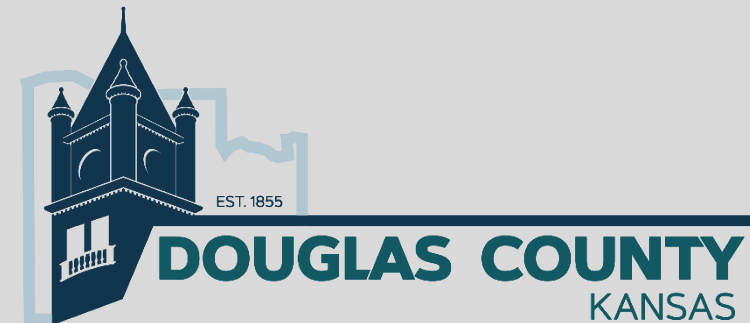

Additional from the Sheriff

- KDOC has informed all Kansas Sheriffs, it will not take inmate transfers to prison before mid-September
- Law Enforcement is still not making many arrests

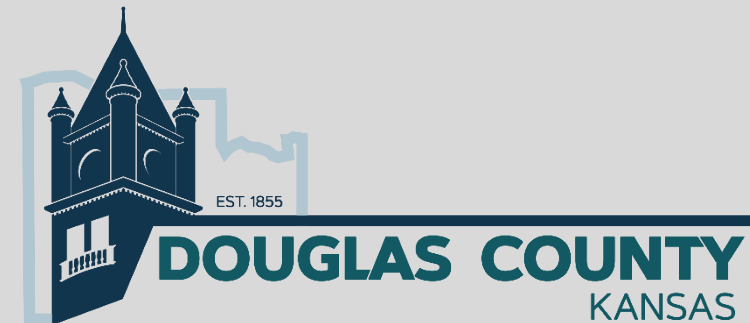

Housing Persons Out-of-County

- Four Counties are contracting with Douglas.
- What happens if one of those counties have a positive COVID case in custody?
- How will those counties react if Douglas has a positive COVID case in custody?
